

Books with sounds and actions

Wiggle* by Doreen Cronin, illustrated by Scott Menchin

With pictures and words that wiggle and squiggle all over every page, you can't help but join in with a few wiggles yourself!

How To Speak Moo!* by Deborah Fajerman

A quick lesson in cow language – Moo. There are all sorts of moos and now is an opportunity to practice most of them. Very lively, very entertaining and what is even better - this story can be as long or short as you want to make it.

Two By Two And A Half* by David Melling

When the nursery class go on a woodland walk with their teacher they step out at a pace, singing a jaunty song. Poor Little Bat Jack struggles to keep up at first, but he turns out to be the most important of all. Get up and join in – stride out and sing loud.

The Ding Ding-Dong Bag* by Polly Peters, illustrated by Jess Stockham

There are so many noises all around us, so why not see how many you can catch and put in a bag? Make yourself a ding-dong bag just like the one in this story. And when it's full to bursting, open it up and let them all out again. Not for the faint hearted.

Tanka, Tanka, Skunk!* by Steve Webb

Elephant and Skunk love to play the drums. They both have lots of friends and they enjoy playing out all their names to a lively beat. Kan-ga-roo. Cater-pil-lar. You too can clap and work out a beat for names you know.

Created by Jacky Offord, Suffolk Schools Library Service, and the National Literacy Trust.