

Nature journal workshop

Join the Estorick Collection in their garden to design and make your own nature journals and have fun filling them with observations, facts, poems and drawings inspired by this year's Wild World Heroes theme.

Free and suitable for all the family. Advanced booking essential for adults and children. Please note the museum will be closed on the day but access to toilets and baby changing facilities will be made available.

Monday 9 August, 11am - 1pm

Please contact education@estorickcollection or call 020 7704 9522 to book a place