

Rugby World Cup Sweepstake 2019

The 2019 Rugby World Cup kicks off in Japan on Friday 20 September, and to celebrate we have created a special Rugby World Cup sweepstake kit to help you get involved in 'rugby season' and raise money to improve the literacy skills of disadvantaged children at the same time!

Here's how it works:

1. Print out the form below
2. Cut out the names of the countries and offer them to your colleagues, friends or family for a suggested donation of £4
3. Using the form overleaf, write down the name of the person who drew that team
4. Once the competition is over, the person who picked out the winner of the World Cup wins half of the sweepstake pot
5. The other half is donated to the National Literacy Trust via our website (literacytrust.org.uk/donate) using the reference 'Rugby 2019'
6. We'll send you a certificate in the post!
