

Terms and Conditions for the Scrapbook of Hopes challenge from the National Literacy Trust in partnership with the Bupa Foundation

Rules for entry

These terms and conditions apply to the Scrapbook of Hopes challenge. The promoters are the National Literacy Trust, the Bupa Foundation and Bloomsbury Publishing.

1. The Scrapbook of Hopes challenge is open to schools that have been gifted three copies of The Book of Hopes from the National Literacy Trust and the Bupa Foundation.
2. The challenge is free of charge to enter.
3. Schools may run the challenge without choosing to submit entries.
4. The closing date for entries is 31 January 2021 and no entries will be accepted after this date.
5. To be entered for the challenge a member of school staff must email bookofhopes@literacytrust.org.uk including a digital file of their Scrapbook of Hopes which must include:
 - a. School contact details including a contact name and email as well as the school name and full address
 - b. Words and pictures that summarise and display the activities run within the school to promote hope and encourage a love of books and reading, inspired by their copies of The Book of Hopes
6. No responsibility is accepted for entries lost, damaged or delayed as a result of any network, computer hardware or software failure of any kind. Proof of entry will not be accepted as proof of receipt.
7. There will not be a notification of receipt for entries.
8. Words and photographs provided in your competition entry may be used in the media, on documents, newsletters, websites, and the social media channels of the National Literacy Trust and partners and funders. It is therefore essential that you have obtained parental permission for this in relation to any children included in photographs included in the entry. Any entries without such parental permission will be deemed invalid.
9. All eligible entries will be scrutinised by a panel of judges who will be reviewing them to identify ideas and activities that have inspired hope within the school and contributed to strong links with parents/carers and the wider community.

10. A selection of our favourite school entries will win beautiful signed artwork from The Book of Hopes, plus a set of Katherine Rundell's children's books including Rooftoppers and The Good Thieves.
11. One of these winners will also be chosen at random to win a virtual author visit from Katherine Rundell herself.
12. Prizes are non-transferable and non-exchangeable. However, in the event of unforeseen circumstances the promoter reserves the right to offer alternative prizes of equal value.
13. Notification of success will be made to the winning schools by the end of March 2021.
14. By taking part in this challenge all entrants will be deemed to have accepted and be bound by these terms and conditions.
15. The promoter accepts no responsibility for any damage, loss, liabilities, injury or disappointment incurred or suffered as a result of entering this competition or accepting the prize. Nothing shall exclude the liability of the promoter for death or personal injury as a result of its negligence.
16. Contact details provided for entering the prize draw will be managed according to our privacy policy which is available at <https://literacytrust.org.uk/information/privacy-policy/>
17. The National Literacy Trust may in their absolute discretion modify, amend, cancel or suspend these terms and conditions at any time if they deem necessary or if circumstances arise beyond their control.
18. The National Literacy Trust reserves the right in their absolute discretion to disqualify from this competition any entrant who they believe has not complied with these terms and conditions or acted in good faith.
19. The promoters' decisions are final in all matters relating to this promotion and no correspondence will be entered into.
20. These terms and conditions shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales and are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
