

Write a poem about a special item of clothing with Simon Mole

All you have to do is watch the video, press pause when Simon says and note down your ideas as you go. Even an old pair of socks can be inspiring!

Top tips:

1. No need for full sentences.
2. No need to write neatly.

(Although of course you can do both if you want to!)

3. Include as much detail as you can.
4. Say “yes” to your own ideas.

(If something pops into your head, note it down. Even if it seems boring or obvious or silly. There is time to edit and improve things later.)
