

We Wonder Quiz

Turner & Townsend bonus quiz round

We Wonder: Mission to Mars is supported by Turner & Townsend, who work across the world, constructing some amazing buildings and helping other companies with big projects.

Guess the answers to these five questions for bonus points!

- How many countries does Turner & Townsend work in?
 - 25
 - 35
 - 45
- Which UK landmark has Turner & Townsend worked on?
 - The Blackpool Tower
 - The London Eye
 - V&A Dundee Musuem, Scotland
- Which of the following companies have T&T worked with?
 - Google
 - Amazon
 - Rolex
 - FacebookAll of them!
- One of the jobs you can do at Turner & Townsend is a Quantity Surveyor. What do you think a Quantity Surveyor does?
 - Is the boss of a project
 - Measures how much a project costs
 - Works on site doing the physical building
- Turner & Townsend are working on a project called Crossrail- a train line that runs from Reading in the South West of England, right through London, to Shenfield in the South East. It will be the longest stretch of underground railway in history. How many blue whales would you need to line up to reach from end to end?
 - 8 blue whales
 - 5 blue whales
 - 10 blue whales

Changing life stories

