

Checklist	Your notes
What subject are you most interested in writing about?
How are you going to link your subject to the World Cup?  What areas are you going to research for your lesson?
What interesting and unusual information have you discovered? Have you found any funny facts or made up any jokes?
Have you used headings, subheadings and bullet points to organise your lesson?
Have you thought carefully about your page design and layout? Have you used drawings and diagrams?
Which of the following non-fiction features have you included in your lesson to bring it to life on the page?	<input type="checkbox"/> Fact boxes <input type="checkbox"/> Bullet points <input type="checkbox"/> Jokes <input type="checkbox"/> Thought bubbles <input type="checkbox"/> Illustrations or cartoons <input type="checkbox"/> Summary boxes <input type="checkbox"/> Diagrams or charts <input type="checkbox"/> A mini glossary <input type="checkbox"/> Images with captions <input type="checkbox"/> Maps <input type="checkbox"/> A comic strip <input type="checkbox"/> Statistics
Have you included your quiz for the end of the lesson? Aim for five multiple choice questions to really challenge your classmates.	