

Create your own kindness trail

Making your own kindness trail is easy! Follow the instructions below and invite the people you live with to take part with you.

You will need:

- A printer and paper
- Scissors
- Blue tack or cellotape to hang up your signs

Instructions:

1. Ask an adult to print out this document or use the signs as inspiration to write out your own trail
2. Cut out each of the signs. You might need an adults help to use the scissors
3. Plan where you're going to hang up the signs. You could stick them all over your house, or in the garden if it's sunny outside!
4. Use the blue tack or cellotape to hang the signs.
5. Invite the people you live with to join you on the trail and take part in each of the activities.

Random Acts of Kindness Trail

Say hello to everyone you see next time you go for a walk and give them a big smile. It's contagious!

Random Acts of Kindness Trail

Write a thank you letter to someone who has helped you recently, no matter how big or small.

This may be a teacher, someone you live with, or a friend.
